

SHANNON MCLAREN Chief Financial Officer, Crimson Wine Group, Ltd.

Shannon McLaren comes to Crimson from Wentle Family Estates, where she spent four years as the Senior Corporate Controller. Prior to joining Wentle, Ms. McLaren worked with the Clorox Company in Oakland, where she held positions in both Financial Planning and Analysis, as well as Corporate Accounting. She also worked at Altera Corporation in San Jose in Internal Audit. Ms. McLaren spent seven years with KPMG, starting in Sydney, Nova Scotia. There she obtained her Canadian Chartered Accountant designation and after being transferred to the Bay Area in 2004, she obtained her California CPA license.

Ms. McLaren holds a bachelor's degree in business administration with a concentration in accounting from Cape Breton University in Nova Scotia.