

SEVEN HILLS WINERY

Walla Walla • Washington

MERLOT, BORDEAUX- STYLE RED BLENDS AND CABERNET SAUVIGNON FROM ONE OF WALLA WALLA VALLEY'S FOUNDING WINERIES

WALLA WALLA VALLEY HERITAGE

- Winemaker Casey McClellan and his father planted the Seven Hills Old Blocks in 1980
- Established in 1988 as the fifth winery in Walla Walla Valley, Seven Hills Winery shaped the varietal focus of the appellation. 2018 marks the winery's 30th anniversary

OLD WORLD WINE STYLE

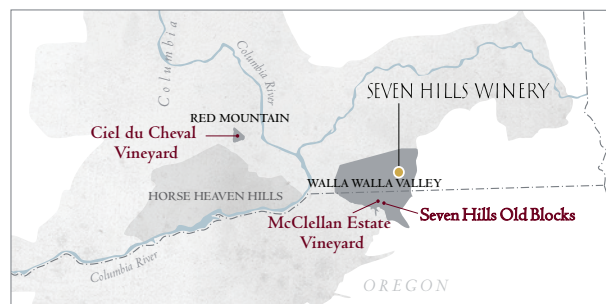

- Wines known for varietal typicity
- Restrained oak and balanced acidity combine to create structure and gracefulness

COMMITMENT TO SUSTAINABILITY

- Sustainability is an important focus on both a local and personal level
- Currently certified by LIVE (Low Input Viticulture & Enology) & Salmon Safe

FOCUS ON QUALITY

- An established reputation over the past three decades and a proven record of high scores
- Long-standing relationships with the Northwest's most respected vineyards

WINEGROWING PHILOSOPHY

Since 1988, Seven Hills Winery has worked to cultivate long-term relationships with the oldest and most respected growers in the Northwest. The winery's exceptional vineyard program focuses on Walla Walla Valley and Red Mountain and includes the estate-designated Seven Hills Old Blocks.

CASEY McCLELLAN, WINEMAKER

As a founder of Seven Hills Winery, Casey McClellan has served as winemaker since the winery's inception. Over the past three decades, Casey has played a pivotal role in developing and defining the Walla Walla wine industry and championing the diversity of the Northwest's most renowned appellations and vineyards.

SEVEN HILLS WINERY

Seven Hills Winery was established by the McClellan family in 1988 as the fifth winery in the Walla Walla Valley. Our Bordeaux-style wines reflect decades of careful study, offering revealing and nuanced narratives of each vineyard.
