WINE & SPIRITS

“This is a blend from old bush vines in the Alexander and Dry Creek valleys farmed by the Passalacqua and Saini families. It feels plush and saturated with foresty fruit, even as the wine remains light and easy—a clean, classical Sonoma County red to pour for lamb chops grilled with rosemary.” –Joshua Greene

“The Seghesio family’s defiant nature enabled them to persevere through Prohibition and the Great Depression. Our Defiant red blend is unconventional, bold and true to Seghesio.”
