

2018 DUNDEE HILLS

Pinot Noir

91
POINTS

WINE ENTHUSIAST

“This cuvée is the first to be released from each new vintage, and the most widely available. The 2018 marks the debut (from harvest to bottling) of winemaker Ian Burch, and it’s a promising one. Full bodied and open, this mixes ripe red and purple fruits, especially plums and cherries, with a touch of lightly minty chocolate. Delicious and ready for near-term enjoyment.”

Paul Gregutt | July 2020

