“Plush in texture, this Zin is generous with blackberry and cherry flavors that draw in accents of briar patch, black pepper and toasty cinnamon as it finishes with zesty tannins. Drink now through 2031.”

Among the most consistent bargains is the Seghesio Zinfandel Sonoma County, whose 2021 bottling (92, $26) not only epitomizes good value but also shows why the 2021 vintage is so appealing.

“The ‘21s remind me of Barolo, where there’s still power there but there’s a lot of acidity and the palate weight of the wines isn’t overpowering,” Robinson says. “They’re wines that are approachable without being simple.”
